Notice: Regarding the Creation of the WhatsApp Group

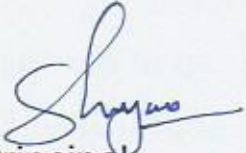

Dear YSM Parivar,

Jai Guru!

It has come to our attention that some faculty colleagues have created a WhatsApp group without obtaining prior permission from the head of the institution, which is a violation of our established protocols and policies.

Forming such groups without appropriate authorization not only violates protocol but also poses potential risks, including the spread of misinformation, breach of confidentiality, and misrepresentation of the institution's official stance. If you accidentally created such a WhatsApp group, you can close such a group immediately.

We remind you of the importance of adhering to established procedures to maintain the integrity and professionalism of our institution. Therefore, we kindly request that you refrain from creating any further WhatsApp groups or similar communication channels without explicit permission from the head of the institution.
