Empowering Special Children: A Ceremony of Inclusion through Motorbike Facilitation

On March 18, 2024, a heartwarming ceremony took place at the CVS Boardroom, dedicated to empowering our students Joseph Ekka, Pratima Kumari, and Akash.

During the ceremony the Jharkhand IAS Officers' Wives Association (JIASOWA) gifted keys of adapted motorbikes to these specially-abled students. This kind gesture not only provided them with a means of mobility but also bestowed upon them a sense of independence and empowerment, fostering a more inclusive society for all.

Before the commencement of the ceremony, a meditation session took place in the Dhyam Mandir. The session was attended by esteemed members of the Jharkhand IAS Officers' Wives Association (JIASOWA), the Secretary GB Sri Avijit Ghosh, the Principal Dr. Shyam Pandey, and various teaching and non-teaching staff members.

During the facilitation ceremony, the presence of Mrs. Gurmeen Singh, the President of JIASOWA, Mrs. Manu Jha, Secretary of JIASOWA, and Dr. (Mrs.) Jersina, a Senior Executive Member, alongside Mrs. Amitha Ranjan, Dr. (Mrs.) Dhivya, and Mrs. Archana, lent an aura of encouragement and solidarity to the occasion.

The presence of the parents of the special children also added a profound layer of emotion to the ceremony. Their words of gratitude towards JIASOWA and the college underscored the invaluable impact of such initiatives on their children's lives.

The initiative was coordinated by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and the dedicated Special Student Facilitator, Mr. Som Prakash.

Special thanks are extended to Sri Pankaj Gurung for his invaluable support in liaising with the District Transportation office and the automobile agency (4S Automobiles).
