

5.1.1 Average percentage of students benefited by scholarships and freeships provided by the institution, Government and nongovernment agencies (NGOs) during the last five years (other than the students receiving scholarships under the government schemes for reserved categories)

5.1.1.1: Number of students benefited by scholarships and freeships provided by the institution, Government and non-government agencies (NGOs) year wise during the last five years (other than the students receiving scholarships under the government schemes for reserved categories)

Answer: Over the past five years, YSM has played a pivotal role in supporting students financially through various schemes. The financial aid programs implemented by the institution, government, and nongovernment agencies (NGOs) have significantly contributed to the academic journey of numerous students. The following four financial assistance schemes have been instrumental in providing support to students at YSM:

- 1. E-Kalyan: The e-Kalyan scholarship is a government initiative in the Indian state of Jharkhand aimed at providing financial assistance to students belonging to economically weaker sections. The scholarship program is designed to support the education of students from Scheduled Tribes (ST), Scheduled Castes (SC), and Other Backward Classes (OBC) communities. The e-Kalyan scholarship scheme covers various educational expenses, including tuition fees, examination fees, hostel fees, and other necessary costs associated with pursuing higher education. The primary objective of the scholarship is to ensure that deserving students have access to quality education and can overcome financial barriers that may hinder their academic pursuits.
- 2. Fee Waiver: The Mahavidyalaya offers up to a 100 percent fee waiver to students based on specific criteria. These criteria include:
 1. Merit: Students who demonstrate exceptional academic performance and achievement.
 2. Sports/Cultural/Fine Arts/NCC/NSS Activities: Students who excel in sports, cultural activities, fine arts, NCC/NSS activities, and have demonstrated their excellence at the national, state, district, or university level.
 3. Economic Background: Students from economically disadvantaged backgrounds, with a family income of less than 10,000 per month and/or falling under the Below Poverty Line (BPL) category.
 4. Association with Yogoda Society (Yogadans): Students associated with the Yogoda Society as Kriyaban Student, Lesson Member Student, or Parent - YSS Lesson Member.
 5. Relatives of Yogoda Satsanga Educational Institution's Fraternities: Students who are relatives of individuals associated with the Yogoda Satsanga educational institution as Teacher/ Staff / Passed out students of Vidyalaya/Intermediate college.
 6. Extreme Compensatory Grounds: Students facing extreme circumstances such as the death of earning parents, orphanhood, or having a disability may receive a fee waiver.
- 3. Paramhanasa Yogananda Scholarship: Every year, meritorious students are honored and supported through institutional scholarships under the prestigious Paramhanasa Yogananda Scholarship. This esteemed scholarship program acknowledges and rewards exceptional academic achievements among students. With the aim of nurturing and encouraging talent, deserving individuals are selected to receive financial assistance to pursue their educational goals. The Paramhanasa Yogananda Scholarship reflects the institution's commitment to recognizing and empowering bright students, providing them with opportunities to excel and thrive in their educational pursuits.
- 4. Yashasvi Scholarship Program by Jindal Steel Limited: The Yashasvi Scholarship Program is a special initiative by the JSP Foundation aimed at supporting girls and women from poor and underprivileged backgrounds in pursuing higher education. The program recognizes that many girls have to sacrifice and compromise their dreams due to a lack of financial support or challenging family situations. To be eligible for the scholarship, applicants must be girls pursuing higher education, come from families with an income level of less than Rs. 2 Lakhs, and fall within the age group of 30 years.

To benefit from the program, applicants need to apply for the scholarship, qualify a written test, and meet the eligibility criteria. Upon selection, the JSP Foundation will provide financial support by directly paying the admissible course fee to the institution on behalf of the scholarship recipients.
